

I know a user of AAC who could use VID-STS to supplement verbal output as this user can be unintelligible to an unfamiliar listener. The user is a student with Down syndrome who is a potential user of AAC. In addition, VID-STS can provide access to emergency services not available to many potential users now.